

In addition to what is accepted at the Eldorado Convenience Center, the following items can be dropped off at La Tienda Building A hallway for reuse and recycling

Item	What happens to it?
Wine bottle corks	Used by local artists or delivered to Resourceful Santa Fe
Toothbrushes, toothpaste tubes & caps - empty and clean Dental floss containers Deodorant containers (non-aerosol only)	All containers and items should empty and clean. To TerraCycle for manufacture into new products through the Tom's of Maine program.
Pens, markers, mechanical pencils NO wooden pencils, please	To TerraCycle for recycling Thanks to Jacobs/EAWSD for support.
Rubber bands	Reused by local newspaper carriers
All brands disposable razors and packaging	To TerraCycle for recycling into new products
Printer ink cartridges	Recycled by Eldorado Post and Parcel as a courtesy to residents.
Metal bottle caps	Used by local artists
Athletic shoes - collection bin near Eldorado Fitness Studio - Bldg B	Good quality shoes donated to local shelters for reuse. Others recycled through Goodwill.
Holiday lights and electrical cords - Bldg B	Taken to Capital Metals. Supports Eldorado/285 Recycles programs.
Plastic bags and film. Check sign at entrance to John Brooks grocery store for accepted items.	Ends up in Trex-type "lumber"
Computers - no other computer related electronics	Check with Steve Ewers in hardware store 505-466-6522
Hair care, skin care, cosmetics packaging	DISCONTINUED

cles.org

Additional info@ sfswma.org

Find us @ eldorado285recy-
8/23